

THE LUSH POP TRIO

instrumental modern classics

The Lush Pop Trio (featuring pianist Joel Pelletier, upright bassist Michael Backes and drummer Jeff Muzerolle) is an acoustic ensemble performing classic pop/rock songs with a classy “cool jazz” visual flair. This instrumental ensemble performs recognizable classic hits from the 1960-80s rock and pop music catalog in a laid-back, sophisticated style. Available for parties, restaurants, private and corporate events, weddings, conferences, mixers, wrap parties, and film and television background/sideline performing, The Lush Pop trio performs mood & background music heavy on melody and light on solos that will have you saying “I love this song, and I’ve never heard it played quite like this before!”

The Lush Pop Trio performs on acoustic instruments with minor amplification (if necessary). If a well-maintained and tuned grand piano is not available, a digital grand piano is acceptable (or can be provided). Based in Los Angeles, the Trio travels regionally, nationally and internationally. Bookings are available for day and evening events; a solo pianist or duo ensemble is also available, and the Trio can also prepare and perform music for singers and/or instrumental soloists.
